

What is the correct legal term for a deed that has been drawn up to change someone's name?

The correct legal term for a deed that has been drawn up in order to change a person's legal name is a 'Deed of Change of Name'. However, these days, most people refer to this document simply as a Deed Poll.

Click here to go to the next article:

<http://www.thelegaldeedpollservice.org.uk/76/what-is-the-purpose-of-a-deed-poll>

Copyright Notice

All rights, including copyright in pursuance of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988, in the content of this page and the web pages at www.thelegaldeedpollservice.org.uk are owned or controlled for these purposes by the Legal Deed Poll Service. In accessing the Legal Deed Poll Service's web pages, you agree that you may only download the content for your own personal non-commercial use. Except where expressly stated otherwise, you are not permitted to copy, broadcast, download, store (in any medium), transmit, adapt or change in any way the content of these Legal Deed Poll Service web pages for any other purpose whatsoever without the prior written permission of the Legal Deed Poll Service.

© The Legal Deed Poll Service 2011. All rights reserved.

The Legal Deed Poll Service
2nd Floor
145-157 St John Street
London
EC1V 4PY

Tel: 0800 612 68 24
Fax: 0800 612 68 22
Email: london@legaldeedpoll.org.uk

Registered in England & Wales under number: 06560160